

We pay a service to have XM radio. The traffic and weather stations in particular are invaluable. They have better, more up to date information than you can find anywhere else. When you pay for a service you want to get what you pay for and what makes you happy. XM does this. Please reject NAB's petition 04-1601!!